

Disclosure Statement for “Race and the Mismeasurement of School Quality.”

This study has not been submitted for publication elsewhere.

The project received funding from the Walton foundation. The empirical work was carried out under data-use agreements with the Denver Public Schools, the New York City Department of Education, and GreatSchools.org.

I am a cofounder of Avela Education, an education technology start-up, from which I draw no income.

I hereby declare that I have no other relevant or financial relationships related to the research described in this manuscript.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'J. Angrist', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Joshua Angrist