

Disclosure Statement for Review of “Making Money: Coin, Currency, and the Coming of Capitalism,” by Christine Desan

William Roberds, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta

Disclosure Principle #1. This paper was written while I was employed by the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta.

Disclosure Principle #2. As a condition of my employment with the Federal Reserve, I receive no income in the form of grants, consultant fees, retainers, or the like.

Disclosure Principle #3. I am not an officer or director of any organization.

Disclosure Principle #4. None of my close relatives, nor my spouse, has any relevant conflict of interest.

Disclosure Principle #5. No party, other than the JEL editor, had the right to review this paper prior to publication.