Disclosure Statement

November 10, 2015

I declare that I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in the paper: "Do Schools Matter for High Math Achievement? Evidence from the American Mathematics Competitions."

This submission used data obtained under a restricted-use agreement with the Mathematics Association of America (MAA) with protocols in place to prevent identification of individual students or schools. The IRB of the University of Nebraska reviewed the release of data to us. No party has the right to review the paper before publication.

Financial support was provided by the Sloan Foundation and the Toulouse Network for Information Technology.
