Dear Fellow-economist,

Attached to this Newsletter is a questionnaire prepared by the Committee which we hope you will complete and return promptly. (See the cover letter for details.) We urgently need your help on this now. We will share the results with you, and we hope you will come to our session at the San Francisco AEA meeting in December to discuss it.

Feed-Back: We have heard from Aaron Gordon (President-elect and 1974 Program Chair) that he was not aware that so many women economists existed until he began receiving "volunteering letters" from you, as we suggested in the Newsletter. Professor Gordon placed as many of you as possible on the December 1974 program himself and referred additional letters to the various program chairpersons who had been selected. Naturally, not all of you could be placed on the program. We have heard from two of you who received immediate replies from Gordon which you thought might be considered "brushoffs." This is not the case and given the volume of mail received, an immediate response to you was probably considerable effort on his part. This office had sent a complete set of sorted listings of our roster to Professor Gordon as an aid in the formation process of the 1974 Program. As a Committee, we welcomed the request for our roster and we hope that follow-up on our Newsletter suggestions will continue to improve the status of women economists.

Follow-up: One of you who read the Committee's article "Combatting Role Prejudice and Sex Discrimination" in the December 1973 AER sent copies to all of the members of the Affirmative Action Committee at her institution. She said this seemed to have positive results on that committee. Perhaps each of you would do the same. It might be a good thing to include Deans on your list of persons who should receive the article, and by all means include a cover letter suggesting the recipient send copies to his/her subordinates. The Harvard University Dean of the Faculty read our article and then suggested it as reading material for all of his colleagues.

International Conference for International Women's Year 1975: Although the exact date has not been set, the United Nations has finally agreed to sponsor a conference for IWY. It will be in Bogota, Columbia probably in June of 1975. If you have ideas about items which should be on the agenda send them to Ruth Bacon, Director, U. S. Center for IWY, 1630 Crescent Place, NW, Washington, D.C. 20009. New York State is the first and thus far the only state passing a resolution supporting IWY and calling on the Governor to act. State Senator Krupsak initiated the resolution and you might get in touch with him if you are considering agitating for this in your state.

Job Opportunities: The job openings which are enclosed have reached this office since March 22 when we mailed our last Newsletter. However, during the three months many of the openings may have been filled. If you find something of particular interest, you might call to see if the position is still available. Pages 5 & 6 are most recent.

Job openings for Economists (JOE): A letter announcing the start of publication this fall went out from Walter Heller on April 1st. JOE is an effort by the Association to improve the job market for economists. If the effort is successful this Committee may discontinue its listing of Job Opportunities. Please give us your opinion after JOE is operational.

London School of Economics: An organization called the American Friends of the London School of Economics has asked us to publicize its existence. Its purpose is to keep ex-students and other associates (including non-Americans resident in the U.S.) in touch with LSE and with each other, and from time to time to organize support in this country for specific developments at the School; it is now helping to rehouse the library. For information, write: The Secretary, The American Friends of the London School of Economics, P.O. Box 2033, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.

Western Economic Association: The WEA in association with the Western Finance Association will be holding its 50th annual conference in Denver, June 1975. Dougless C. North at the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington 98505 will be the Program Chairperson and requests that abstracts be submitted before November 1, 1974.

Perspectives on Women: The University of Colorado and the Colorado Commission on the Status of Women presents Perspectives on Women July 29 through August 9, 1974. Undergraduate and graduate credit will be available. Write for information to: Bureau of Conferences and Institutes, Academy 217, 970 Aurora Avenue, University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado 80302.

National Civil Service League: The NCSL will be giving its workshop "Developing Women's Potential" at varying times on both the east and west coasts this summer. Write Rose B. Williams, N.C.S.L., 1825 K Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20006.

Employment Assistants and Assistance: Management Woman, Inc. an executive search and recruitment firm specializing in middle and upper level management women has been founded by Anne Hyde and Janet Jones. They particularly recognize the need to protect the professional women's anonymity and take great care in achieving this. Current job placements for economists are in the 20-50k range. If you want to know more about their service write: Management Women, Inc., Suite 549, The Plaza at 59th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019.

The Affirmative Action Register has been established to assist institutions of higher education in complying with HEW's guidelines on affirmative action. Listings for position open or wanted is at the rate of $80.00 per column inch. We mention this in the spirit of keeping you informed, not as an advocate. We hope this will be an earnest effort to improve the status of women and other minority groups and not an outlet for window dressing. Write Warren H. Green, A.A.R., 10 South Brentwood Blvd., St. Louis, MO. 63105.

The Women's Studies Library: The Library opened in late April to serve as a resource center for women's studies and feminist and humanist groups. They publish a quarterly newsletter, sponsor summer classes and request any materials you might have for display, or which might be sold. For further information write: Women's Studies Library, Box 7211, Baltimore, Maryland 21218.

Women's Action Alliance: The WAA has developed a series of "information packets" on subjects ranging from "How to Organize a Multi-Service Women's Center" to non-sexist early childhood programs. Their prices are very low (25¢ to $3.00) and they are continuing to develop "packets" on things of interest. For more information write: Women's Action Alliance, 370 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

New Publications: The Executive Woman (a newsletter), 747 Third Ave., New York, N.Y. 10017. The Feminist Book Mart, 162-11 Ninth Ave., Whitestone, New York 11357 has just come out with its '74 catalog of women's books and non-sexist children's books. The American Council on Education has just put out a new book entitled Women in Higher Education edited by W. T. Gurniss and P. A. Graham. Write the ACE at One Dupont Circle, Wash, D.C. 20036. "Women in the Workplace" is a special section of the Monthly Labor Review, May 1974 issue from the BLS. Available for $1.40 from the Gov't. Printing Office, Wash, D.C. 20401.
