

Disclosure Statement for “Organized Crime and Economic Growth: Evidence from Municipalities Infiltrated by the Mafia” for Alessandra Fenizia

1. The Institute for International Economic Policy at The George Washington University paid for a research assistant who helped us on the project.
2. No funding was provided by any interested party.
3. None of us holds any relevant board or directorship position.
4. The above (2-3) apply also to all close family members.
5. The paper was reviewed by the scientific committee of the VisitInps program and appeared in the WorkInps working paper series. According to INPS rules, a rejection of the paper for the working paper series would not have been an impediment to external publication.
6. We submitted a request for an exemption determination from IRB review for this study through the The George Washington University. The study was exempted from IRB review, IRB# NCR203071.

Signed January 16, 2024

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Alessandra Fenizia". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.

Alessandra Fenizia