Disclosure Statement

Dear Editors,

The paper “Financial Access and Labor Market Outcomes: Evidence from Credit Lotteries” submitted to be considered for publication in the American Economic Review was conducted without financial support from external sources. Furthermore, I have not received significant financial support from external sources within the past three years. I hold a position as economist at the Central Bank of Brazil and as visiting economist at the Bank for International Settlements. Finally, I declare that I have no further relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.

Sincerely,
