

Disclosure Statement
for “Making Our Neighborhoods, Making Our Selves: A Review Essay”

Dionissi Aliprantis

October 30, 2020

- 1) The submitted article states my source of financial support for the research it describes: The Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland.
- 2) Neither I, nor a close relative or partner, has received financial support from an interested party summing to at least US$10,000 in the past three years.
- 3) I serve as board member for the Sisters of Charity Foundation of Cleveland, a 501 c-3 organization. The Sisters of Charity Foundation of Cleveland is a health care conversion foundation that aims to change the trajectory of poverty in Cuyahoga County, Ohio. The foundation was not involved in this research project. I also serve as a Director of Greater Than Math, a group that runs math summer camps for middle and high school students. Greater Than Math was not involved in this research project
- 4) No other disclosures are required for my partner or close relatives.
- 5) No party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.