

Disclosure Statement for JEP Submission

Date: April 4, 2022

Author: Gordon Hanson

Paper: "Has U.S. Immigration from Latin America and the Caribbean Come to an End?"

1. Sources of financial support for the research.

Hanson acknowledges support from the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation.

2. Each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

I list below all parties from which I have received $10K+ in the last three years. I do not believe that any of these entities qualifies as an "interested party" but I am erring on the side of completeness nonetheless.

- a. American Economic Association (coeditor honorarium)
 - b. PriceSmart, Inc. (board of director's stipend)
 - c. Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (honorarium)
 - d. Techint (speaking fee)
 - e. KIO Networks (speaking fee)
3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A "relevant" organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

No disclosures to report.

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

No spousal or family-related potential COIs of which I am aware.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.
