

Disclosure Statement for Manuscript “Optimal Policy for Macro-Financial Stability” Co-Author: Alessandro Rebucci

(1) Every submitted article should state the sources of financial support for the particular research it describes. If none, that fact should be stated.

I have not received any financial support for this research.

(2) Each author of a submitted article should identify each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like. The disclosure requirement also includes in-kind support, such as providing access to data. If the support in question comes with a non-disclosure obligation, that fact should be stated, along with as much information as the obligation permits. If there are no such sources of funds, that fact should be stated explicitly. An “interested” party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial, ideological, or political stake related to the article.

I have not received any sources of funds for this research.

(3) Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

I hold no paid or unpaid position in any “relevant” organization.

(4) The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

No close relative or partner meets any of the criteria in any of the above disclosures.

(5) Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

(6) For published articles, information on relevant potential conflicts of interest will be made available to the public.

I agree that this disclosure statement will be made available to the public.
