

Disclosure Statement for the article

Hacking Gender Stereotypes: Girls' Participation in Coding Clubs

For the research described in the submitted manuscript I have received financial support from the following sources:

HKS WAPPP grant, the Spencer Foundation small research grant, EIEF grant for research, and LEAP-Bocconi grant.

The study was approved by the Ethics Committee of Bocconi University (Declaration on March 29, 2018), Ethics Committee of University of Bologna (Declaration 179772 on December 7, 2018) and Harvard University (IRB18-1557, April 16, 2019).

I have not received any financial support in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like from any interested party, where an “interested” party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial, ideological, or political stake related to the article.

I do not hold and have not held any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

The above disclosures also apply to any close relative or partner of mine.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

Michela Carlana