

Disclosure Statement

I, Javier Garcia-Brazales, hereby disclose the following financial support and funding sources associated with the paper titled "Tailoring Mentorship: Evidence on Diverse Needs and Application Patterns for High School Students" submitted for consideration to the American Economic Association (AEA):

- The research project received financial support from the Ministerio de Inclusión, Seguridad Social y Migraciones through the "Plan de Recuperación, Transformación y Resiliencia" as outlined in the Royal Decree 378/2022 published on May 17, 2022. The research project has been subsidized by the European Union Next Generation program under the project code "TP TS- 20220531-1."
  - The title of the project is "Proyectos educativos que refuerzan la efectividad del Ingreso Mínimo Vital: Hedera."

Moreover, I declare on my behalf and that of my co-authors Caterina Calsamiglia and Annalisa Loviglio that the present project received Institutional Review Board approval from the Spanish Ministerio de Inclusión, Seguridad Social y Migraciones on 8 September 2023.

I have no other relevant matters to disclose.

Signed in Madrid, on 12 January 2024.
